Extended biography

Carlo Giannico is an Italian DJ and producer based in Dubai. Born in Taranto and active in electronic music for more than a decade, he produces and plays tech house, UKG, breakbeat and deep dubstep, with Jamaican, Latin and Brazilian influences: club records made for a proper sound system.

He first broke through as ABLAZE, releasing on Buygore and Space Yacht, collaborating with Ghastly and Raizhell, and playing as a special guest across France, Spain and Italy and at Club EGO in Las Vegas. In 2023 he launched the Carlo Giannico project, focused on house and tech house, and has since released on mau5trap, Mad Decent and MONTA. His track TAKA TAKA came out on mau5trap, and he was invited to record a guest mix for mau5trap radio (episode 398, SiriusXM BPM).

His records and edits have been supported by Diplo, Cloonee, Mau P, CID, Acraze, Herobust, Boombox Cartel and Rewire. He also composed the complete original score for the Italian feature film Cattiva Strada, released by Notorious Pictures.

Now based in Dubai, Carlo plays club nights and events across the UAE and is available for bookings internationally. Alongside his own work he teaches DJing and music production at Digital Renaissance Music Institute, the contemporary music institute in Dubai Knowledge Park.
